Birmingham Newman University

At Birmingham Newman University, we believe in the power of education to transform lives and in the potential of every individual. Our vision is to provide an inclusive and supportive environment where people are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to make a meaningful difference in their communities, industries, and the wider world.

Students, staff, and partners are more than just a number – they are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to create meaningful change. We believe that education is transformative, enabling students to see the world in new ways and to make a positive difference within it.

Building upon our Catholic heritage since 1968, Birmingham Newman has grown into a modern, inclusive university that welcomes people from all backgrounds and world views. Our values remain central to everything we do, serving as a foundation for a vibrant, diverse, and forward-looking academic community. We are proud of this heritage and continue to champion fairness, equality, and opportunity in everything we do.

We take pride in our diverse, friendly, and inclusive environment, where every student is valued, supported, and encouraged to achieve their goals. We put student success and wellbeing at the centre of everything we do, made possible by the expertise and professionalism of our dedicated staff community. Our future is shaped by a clear vision and a set of goals that reflect both our mission and our ambition, to be the leading university in inclusive education for the graduate workforce of tomorrow. At the heart of this is our commitment to a values-driven, high-quality university education.

Our focus on partnership with students and staff underpins everything we do, and this is reflected in national recognition of the quality of our student experience. We have recently been named The Times and Sunday Times University of the Year for Social Inclusion (2026), ranked 1st in England for Student Satisfaction in the Complete University Guide (2025), and named West Midlands University of the Year by WhatUni (2025). In the National Student Survey (2025) we also placed in the top ten in England for full-time student satisfaction for the second consecutive year.

We are proud to be among the top UK universities for widening participation, coming 6th in the HEPI Social Mobility Index (2024). Ninety-nine per cent of our students come from non-selective state schools, 72% are the first in their family to attend university, and over 45% come from Black, Asian, or minority ethnic backgrounds. This diversity is a strength of our community and central to our mission.

Over the past ten years our modern single-site campus, eight miles southwest of Birmingham city centre, has benefited from a significant programme of ongoing capital investment. We have built teaching, learning, and social spaces that are deliberately designed to support our community of staff and students to interact and learn together. Our portfolio of taught courses has also expanded in that time, reflecting our strategic goal of growing the university in ways that meet pressing social and economic needs of our region. Our specialist teaching spaces in Nursing and Allied Health, Teaching, Psychology, Sport, Law, and Computing support learning that produces highly-skilled practitioners from diverse backgrounds.

Birmingham Newman University is more than a place of study or work. It is a community rooted in care, respect, and ambition for our staff our students and the University as a whole; where staff and students work together making a difference not only in their own lives, but in their communities, professions, and the wider world.

General Terms & Conditions of Employment

This post is a part time appointment, offered on a fixed term basis. It will be remunerated on the single pay spine, at Grade AC2 £38,784 to £43,482 per annum pro rata. The appointment is subject to meeting all pre-employment clearances and requirements of the Person Specification.

All new employees undergo a period of probation in accordance with the University Probationary Scheme and confirmation of employment is dependent on the satisfactory completion of that probationary period.

The standard hours of work are based on 37 hours per week for Professional and Support Staff and 35 hours per week for Academic Staff. Your line manager will discuss with you the required working hours.

The University holiday year runs from January to December for Professional and Support Staff and from September to August for Academic Staff. The post carries an entitlement to 35 working days (for a full-time position, otherwise pro rata) of paid leave during the course of the holiday year (pro rata if the appointment is made during the holiday year), in addition to Statutory Bank Holidays. There may also be discretionary days and days when the University is closed on particular dates in the interests of efficiency.

Disclosure and Barring Service

It is a condition of employment that all relevant posts are vetted by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) and if it applies to this appointment, you will be required to undertake a DBS check. The University will pay the fee for this service. Any false declarations or any findings from the Disclosure could affect the suitability for employment.

Pension and Auto Enrolment

If you meet the criteria set out below and are not already an active member of any of our pension schemes, the University is required to auto-enrol you into a suitable pension scheme.

The criteria for auto-enrolment are:

- Age - if you are 22 or over but no more than State Pension Age
- Earnings - a minimum of £10,000 per year
- Working in the UK

The pension schemes supported by Birmingham Newman University are:

- <https://www.teacherspensions.co.uk> - Teachers' Pension Scheme for academic staff
- <http://aviva.co.uk> - Aviva Scheme for professional and support staff
- <http://www.nestpensions.org.uk> - National Employment Savings Trust, NEST for staff not eligible to join either of the above schemes

You will be auto-enrolled into the National Employment Savings Trust (NEST) unless you are an academic and eligible to contribute to TPS, or other member of professional and support staff employed on a substantive contract of employment, in which case you will be auto-enrolled into Aviva, our defined contributory scheme. You will receive a notice from the University Payroll Department telling you that you have been auto enrolled and advising you of your options, including the right to opt out. Once you have been auto-enrolled, you will have an option to opt-out of the pension scheme and receive a refund of your first contribution. There is a time limit of one month in which to do this, and you will have to contact your pension scheme to make this happen; the University is prohibited, by law, from helping you to opt-out.

Staff Benefits

We offer a wide range of Staff Benefits including 35 days annual leave entitlement plus bank holidays (pro rata for part time posts), pension scheme, chaplaincy and spiritual care, library services, free on-site parking, discounted travel scheme, cycle to work scheme, employee assistance programme, occupational health and counselling services and staff development opportunities. Further details of the full range of staff benefits available can be found on our website: Birmingham Newman University - Jobs - Staff benefits or please contact the Human Resources Department.

Procedure for Application

Application forms should be completed and submitted online via the Application Form link for each advertised post. CV's and covering letters are not accepted as part of the application process unless explicitly stated. Considerable emphasis is placed in the shortlisting process on how candidates demonstrate in their application that they possess the qualifications, experience, skills and qualities which are required for the post.

Application forms should therefore refer explicitly to how you meet the essential and desirable criteria for the post you are applying for.

The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and we operate the Disability Confident Employer Standard which amongst other things guarantees an interview to disabled applicants who meet the essential criteria of the job specification.

Two referees should be identified who must be people who can comment authoritatively on you as a person and as an employee in relation to the level of the post and must include your current or most recent employer or their representative. You must disclose whether you are related to any employee of the University, or to any member of the Council. Canvassing for appointment disqualifies you from being selected for interview or being appointed to the post in question.

Should you be selected for interview please be aware that we are unable to reimburse interview expenses. If you have not heard from us within four weeks of the advertised closing date, please assume that you have not been shortlisted on this occasion.

Closing date for applications: 22nd May 2026

Interviews will take place on 18 June 2026
