Birmingham Newman University

At Birmingham Newman University, we believe in the power of education to transform lives and in the potential of every individual. Our vision is to provide an inclusive and supportive environment where people are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to make a meaningful difference in their communities, industries, and the wider world.

Students, staff, and partners are more than just a number – they are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to create meaningful change. We believe that education is transformative, enabling students to see the world in new ways and to make a positive difference within it.

Building upon our Catholic heritage since 1968, Birmingham Newman has grown into a modern, inclusive university that welcomes people from all backgrounds and world views. Our values remain central to everything we do, serving as a foundation for a vibrant, diverse, and forward-looking academic community. We are proud of this heritage and continue to champion fairness, equality, and opportunity in everything we do.

We take pride in our diverse, friendly, and inclusive environment, where every student is valued, supported, and encouraged to achieve their goals. We put student success and wellbeing at the centre of everything we do, made possible by the expertise and professionalism of our dedicated staff community. Our future is shaped by a clear vision and a set of goals that reflect both our mission and our ambition, to be the leading university in inclusive education for the graduate workforce of tomorrow. At the heart of this is our commitment to a values-driven, high-quality university education.

Our focus on partnership with students and staff underpins everything we do, and this is reflected in national recognition of the quality of our student experience. We have recently been named The Times and Sunday Times University of the Year for Social Inclusion (2026), ranked 1st in England for Student Satisfaction in the Complete University Guide (2025), and named West Midlands University of the Year by WhatUni (2025). In the National Student Survey (2025) we also placed in the top ten in England for full-time student satisfaction for the second consecutive year.

We are proud to be among the top UK universities for widening participation, coming 6th in the HEPI Social Mobility Index (2024). Ninety-nine per cent of our students come from non-selective state schools, 72% are the first in their family to attend university, and over 45% come from Black, Asian, or minority ethnic backgrounds. This diversity is a strength of our community and central to our mission.

Over the past ten years our modern single-site campus, eight miles southwest of Birmingham city centre, has benefited from a significant programme of ongoing capital investment. We have built teaching, learning, and social spaces that are deliberately designed to support our community of staff and students to interact and learn together. Our portfolio of taught courses has also expanded in that time, reflecting our strategic goal of growing the university in ways that meet pressing social and economic needs of our region. Our specialist teaching spaces in Nursing and Allied Health, Teaching, Psychology, Sport, Law, and Computing support learning that produces highly-skilled practitioners from diverse backgrounds.

Birmingham Newman University is more than a place of study or work. It is a community rooted in care, respect, and ambition for our staff our students and the University as a whole; where staff and students work together making a difference not only in their own lives, but in their communities, professions, and the wider world.

Job Description

Job Title:	Senior Lecturer Business Management
Grade:	AC3
Salary:	£44,746 - £58,226
Hours:	Full Time
Department:	School of Business and Law
Reporting to:	Principal Lecturer Business Management (Academic Partnerships Lead)

Purpose of Post:

To contribute to the delivery, assurance and continuous enhancement of Business Management provision across the School of Business and Law, with a substantive focus on the academic oversight and support of collaborative partnership programmes.

The post holder will play a key academic role in safeguarding academic standards, parity of student experience and academic regulatory compliance across partner-delivered provision, working closely with the Academic Partnerships Lead and partner staff. Alongside this, the role will contribute to on-campus teaching, student support, recruitment activity and the wider academic life of the School, ensuring strong connectivity between campus and collaborative provision.

The role requires regular engagement with partner institutions, including scheduled visits aligned to the University's academic oversight framework and operations manual, and a professional presence that represents the University as awarding body. Travel, including some overnight stays, is an integral and expected aspect of the role

1. Main responsibilities:

Academic oversight and collaborative provision

- Provide academic oversight of projects and programmes delivered through collaborative partners, ensuring delivery aligns with approved curricula, assessment requirements, academic regulations and University policies.
- Undertake planned academic visits to partner campuses in line with agreed schedules, contributing to teaching observations, staff engagement, student meetings and assurance activity.
- Review and assure partner teaching materials, assessment briefs, feedback practices and learning resources through direct engagement with partner virtual learning environments.

Birmingham Newman University

- Contribute to the monitoring of student engagement, continuation, progression and outcomes within partner provision, identifying emerging academic risk and supporting timely intervention.
- Act as a link tutor working with the Academic Partnerships Lead to support annual evaluation, action planning and follow-up activity arising from external examiner reports, student feedback and performance data.
- Support partner staff through academic liaison, guidance and developmental dialogue, reinforcing University expectations while fostering effective collaborative relationships.
- Contribute to programme boards, subject boards, link tutor forums and other assurance forums related to collaborative provision, preparing, reporting and following up actions as required.

Teaching, student experience and academic contribution

- Design, deliver and assess modules within the Business portfolio on campus, ensuring high-quality, inclusive and engaging learning and teaching.
- Act as an academic personal tutor, providing effective academic guidance and pastoral support to students.
- Contribute to curriculum development, module enhancement and pedagogic innovation across the School, informed by insight gained from both campus and partner provision.
- Support student recruitment, conversion and outreach activity, including applicant engagement, open days and targeted recruitment initiatives linked to Business programmes.
- Engage in scholarship, professional practice or research activity appropriate to role and grade, contributing to the academic and research profile of the School.

Quality, governance and professional practice

- Contribute actively to quality assurance and enhancement processes, ensuring that academic practice is robust, well-evidenced and defensible.
- Work collaboratively with colleagues across academic, professional services and partnerships to ensure coherent delivery and reporting of academic oversight activity.
- Maintain up-to-date knowledge of regulatory expectations relating to collaborative provision and contribute to the development of resilient, sustainable academic practices.
- Participate fully in appraisal, professional development and mandatory training, maintaining high standards of professional conduct and accountability.
- Undertake other academic duties commensurate with the role, as agreed with the Associate Dean or nominated representative.
- The post holder will be dealing with 'restricted information' as part of their duties, in accordance with the University's Information Security Policy.

For all staff the place of work is Birmingham Newman University.

2. Health & Safety:

- Under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 the post holder must take reasonable care of their own health and safety and that of any other person who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The post holder must also co-operate with the University on all matters concerning health and safety and not interfere with, or misuse, anything provided for the purpose of health, safety or welfare. The post holder must follow Health & Safety requirements in line with their training and instruction, and report to management any unsafe acts or conditions, defects in equipment or facilities that have the potential to affect health and safety. The post holder must report to management any injuries they receive whilst at work.
- Where post holders line manage staff and services, they will be responsible for the health, safety and welfare of those staff and services in accordance with the University's Health & Safety Organisational Arrangements.
