Birmingham Newman University

At Birmingham Newman University, we believe in the power of education to transform lives and in the potential of every individual. Our vision is to provide an inclusive and supportive environment where people are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to make a meaningful difference in their communities, industries, and the wider world.

Students, staff, and partners are more than just a number – they are recognised, encouraged, and empowered to create meaningful change. We believe that education is transformative, enabling students to see the world in new ways and to make a positive difference within it.

Building upon our Catholic heritage since 1968, Birmingham Newman has grown into a modern, inclusive university that welcomes people from all backgrounds and world views. Our values remain central to everything we do, serving as a foundation for a vibrant, diverse, and forward-looking academic community. We are proud of this heritage and continue to champion fairness, equality, and opportunity in everything we do.

We take pride in our diverse, friendly, and inclusive environment, where every student is valued, supported, and encouraged to achieve their goals. We put student success and wellbeing at the centre of everything we do, made possible by the expertise and professionalism of our dedicated staff community. Our future is shaped by a clear vision and a set of goals that reflect both our mission and our ambition, to be the leading university in inclusive education for the graduate workforce of tomorrow. At the heart of this is our commitment to a values-driven, high-quality university education.

Our focus on partnership with students and staff underpins everything we do, and this is reflected in national recognition of the quality of our student experience. We have recently been named The Times and Sunday Times University of the Year for Social Inclusion (2026), ranked 1st in England for Student Satisfaction in the Complete University Guide (2025), and named West Midlands University of the Year by WhatUni (2025). In the National Student Survey (2025) we also placed in the top ten in England for full-time student satisfaction for the second consecutive year.

We are proud to be among the top UK universities for widening participation, coming 6th in the HEPI Social Mobility Index (2024). Ninety-nine per cent of our students come from non-selective state schools, 72% are the first in their family to attend university, and over 45% come from Black, Asian, or minority ethnic backgrounds. This diversity is a strength of our community and central to our mission.

Over the past ten years our modern single-site campus, eight miles southwest of Birmingham city centre, has benefited from a significant programme of ongoing capital investment. We have built teaching, learning, and social spaces that are deliberately designed to support our community of staff and students to interact and learn together. Our portfolio of taught courses has also expanded in that time, reflecting our strategic goal of growing the university in ways that meet pressing social and economic needs of our region. Our specialist teaching spaces in Nursing and Allied Health, Teaching, Psychology, Sport, Law, and Computing support learning that produces highly-skilled practitioners from diverse backgrounds.

Birmingham Newman University is more than a place of study or work. It is a community rooted in care, respect, and ambition for our staff our students and the University as a whole; where staff and students work together making a difference not only in their own lives, but in their communities, professions, and the wider world.

The postholder will be able to contribute to our Undergraduate counselling studies programmes and professional training programmes – BACP accredited Foundation Degree in Integrative Counselling, UPCA accredited MSc in Integrative Psychotherapy, BACP accredited MSc in Integrative Counselling and depending on prior experience and professional registration, to our wider portfolio of programmes.

1. Main responsibilities:

- To teach on all available Counselling, Psychotherapy & Talking Therapies programmes
- To provide high-quality teaching, learning and assessment in the area of counselling and psychotherapy across a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes, depending on academic and clinical specialism and professional accreditation / registration status.
- To deliver research and enterprise activity and to maintain a professional and research profile.

- To plan, manage and organise teaching on relevant programmes.
- To prepare, deliver and mark course work, assignment and examinations, supervise dissertations and project work and to provide tutorial guidance to students.
- To support the academic, administrative and development activities of the School.
- To effectively undertake module leadership, development and administration (including knowledge and understanding of academic regulations) and to contribute to the preparation for course committees, annual reviews and assessment and progression boards.
- To undertake development of new modules, course material and information to assist student learning.
- To undertake personal and collaborative research, and disseminate results as appropriate, including writing and publishing peer reviewed articles, conference papers and/or books.
- To plan, organise and monitor own work with minimal supervision in order to achieve tasks and meet deadlines.
- To work co-operatively and flexibly as a member of a teaching team and School, sharing information and ideas, engaging and motivating students and staff across the University.
- To work closely with other members of the subject team to ensure safety and fitness to practice of students on professional programmes.
- To demonstrate a commitment to personal, teaching and subject development and to undertake appropriate development activities through the Annual Appraisal process.
- To update regular knowledge in the subject areas taught. To keep abreast of professional developments and comply with professional accreditation requirements e.g. CPD, and to maintain appropriate professional and scholarly activities.
- Supervising and providing student support and guidance for student learning activities such as work-based learning and placements and acting as an Academic Personal Tutor.
- To participate fully in recruitment activities as determined by the Head of Subject and Associate Dean.
- To undertake other such duties commensurate with the post and grade as agreed with the Head of Subject and Associate Dean/Head of Department.

- The postholder will be dealing with 'restricted information' as part of their duties.
- We expect all new academic members of staff to obtain Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy (HEA) within four years of appointment, if you have not already done so.
- If not already obtained prior to your appointment, and you do not have four years' experience teaching in HE, you are required to enrol onto the PGCert within your first year of employment.
- If you do not hold a Fellowship of the HEA but do have four years' experience teaching in HE, you are required to register on the CPD route to Fellowship as one of the conditions of passing your probation period (not the PGCert).
- For all staff the place of work is Birmingham Newman University.

If appointed at Senior Lecturer level, the postholder will also undertake the following responsibilities:

- To act as Programme Leader as required.
- To lead on programme validation/revalidation and PSRB (Professional, Statutory and Regulatory bodies) requirements such as BACP/UKCP/BPS course accreditation processes.
- To undertake management and development of courses and curriculum development.
- To write relevant documentation relating to the development and management of Counselling and/or psychotherapy programmes.
- To liaise with external bodies and examiners.
- To develop links with external agencies, for example, in relation to the development of placements and other work-based learning.
- In acting as a Programme leader as required, the post holder has a responsibility to ensure that policies and procedures are followed and that staff receive appropriate induction, training and support, that absence is managed and recorded.

2. Health & Safety:

- Under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 the post holder must take reasonable care of their own health and safety and that of any other person who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The post holder must also co-operate with the University on all matters concerning health and safety and not interfere with, or misuse, anything provided for the purpose of health, safety or welfare. The post holder must follow Health & Safety requirements in line with their training and instruction, and report to management any unsafe acts or conditions, defects in equipment or facilities that have the potential to affect health and safety. The post holder must report to management any injuries they receive whilst at work.
- Where post holders line manage staff and services, they will be responsible for the health, safety and welfare of those staff and services in accordance with the University's Health & Safety Organisational Arrangements.

Further details of the full range of staff benefits available can be found on our website: Birmingham Newman University - Jobs - Staff benefits or please contact the Human Resources Department.

Procedure for Application

Application forms should be completed and submitted online via the Application Form link for each advertised post. CV's and covering letters are not accepted as part of the application process unless explicitly stated. Considerable emphasis is placed in the shortlisting process on how candidates demonstrate in their application that they possess the qualifications, experience, skills and qualities which are required for the post.

Application forms should therefore refer explicitly to how you meet the essential and desirable criteria for the post you are applying for.

The University is an Equal Opportunity Employer, and we operate the Disability Confident Employer Standard which amongst other things guarantees an interview to disabled applicants who meet the essential criteria of the job specification.

Two referees should be identified who must be people who can comment authoritatively on you as a person and as an employee in relation to the level of the post and must include your current or most recent employer or their representative. You must disclose whether you are related to any employee of the University, or to any member of the Council. Canvassing for appointment disqualifies you from being selected for interview or being appointed to the post in question.

Should you be selected for interview please be aware that we are unable to reimburse interview expenses. If you have not heard from us within four weeks of the advertised closing date, please assume that you have not been shortlisted on this occasion.

Closing date for applications: 21 September 2026

Interviews will take place in October 2026
